

PINE VALLEY CENTRAL SCHOOL WALL OF FAME

Inducted June 25, 2006

Dr. Rhodella Brown was the 2006 commencement speaker. It was announced at graduation on June 25, 2006 that she was being inducted into the Wall of Fame, and she was presented with her plaque at the graduation ceremony.

Rhodella (Ennis) Brown, Class of 1965: Rhodella began her career in education teaching mathematics at Gowanda Central School and then moved on to higher education teaching mathematics and computer science at SUNY Fredonia as a part-time instructor. For the past 19 years she has been employed by Daytona Beach Community College where she has held many positions including: Professor of Mathematics, Faculty Senate President, Academic Coordinator, Chapter President of Florida Association of Community Colleges and Assistant Dean of Adult Education. Currently she is Dean of the Virtual College with an enrollment of over 6,000 students per year, director of a $1.5 million grant and holds the position of chairmanship over a state-wide committee under the Florida Distance Learning Consortium.