

Pine Valley Central School Community Service Individual Student Log

Graduation requirements at Pine Valley Central School include a component for 70 community service hours. Students are expected to provide thoughtful and meaningful service for someone or some group in our community. Students may not receive monetary nor material compensation as an individual, as part of a team, class or organization. If you have a question as to whether or not the service being performed is an acceptable or approved community service activity, please contact the Community Service Coordinators, Stacy Chase (ext. 4334) or Bill Lachner (ext. 4335) at 988-3276. Regular opportunities are updated on the school website at www.pval.org.

This form must be completed in its entirety to be considered.
