

LITERACY IS FUN TIME (LIFT)

DECEMBER CHOICE BOARD GRADES 3-6

Start a reading versus screen time chart. Record the amount of time spent each day on reading and screen time. Keep track for a week. If reading time is greater than screen time than you can earn a treat. Show Mrs. Kelley or Mrs. Marsh for a treat.	Read, Read, Read! It's never a bad idea!	Read a story. Draw a picture of the main character in the setting.
Write and illustrate a story about the best snow day ever. What made it so great?	Free Space: GO outside and play. Our bodies need exercise to help us focus.	Create vocabulary picture cards of the following words: Pride Perseverance Include a definition, picture and use the word in a sentence/
Write about your favorite winter activity using lots of detail. Is this the same activity you enjoyed when you were younger?	Make some hot cocoa and read a book to a family member, stuffed animal, or pet for at least 30 minutes.	Create a New Year's resolution or goal for the upcoming year. Write it down somewhere to remind yourself about the goal you set.

These are some fun, optional, remote Friday activities for the month of November. Please enjoy working on these activities throughout the month if you have some extra time. Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Marsh look forward to seeing what you chose to do at the end of the month. It doesn't matter if you complete 1 activity or all 9 activities.
