

FOLLOWING DIRECTIONS

The topics covered in the Transportation section of this website are just a small sample of the laws, rules and regulations drivers and monitors regularly receive training on. Every bit of training drivers and monitors receive is geared around student safety. It is important for students to listen to the drivers, adhere to the safety measures and follow the driver's instructions for their own safety.

All children are expected to adhere to the rules and procedures for the safety of all!

April 2016